

HATS – The Brief

The brief is to look at your list if you have anything that is particularly apt to represent your hats we will use it or them, I have a lot of 'Tat' that i've collected and we will use that as appropriate. In addition I would like you to select a personal object or thing and or dress that you think represents you as minimal or elaborately outrageous as you wish. It might even be some kind of fantasy dressing up as you may wish to be seen or how you think others see you? You can have a bit of fun with his...if you want to....promise no questions asked!!!
