

HATS –

Hi All

I'm writing to you to ask if you would like to be involved in a small piece of research that will enable me to make a series of photographs showing the many, metaphorically speaking 'Hats' women wear on any given day.

The aim of the project is to highlight in a visual way, something we probably already know, that we are expert 'multi-taskers' – but then again, maybe women do not take on as many extra tasks as I think? Maybe women of a younger generation have been more successful at managing the division of labour?

It is important to say that this is not an absolute piece of research, merely an aid to give a flavour of a group of womens daily experiences as opposed to our life partners, or fellow male colleagues and friends.

'Hat' suggestions might be - economist, cook, mother, lover, social secretary, nurse, vet, psychologist, teacher, lawyer, cleaner, all round domestic goddess, interior designer, car mechanic etc...I'm sure you get the picture, be as creative with your hats as you like. Please do not forget your professional title if you have one or can pin one down...I realise this may change on a daily basis!

As I would like to get as broad a range of experience in terms of age, gender and cultural background as possible, please DO ask your partner, professional colleagues, friends, male or female if they would like to participate and answer the same simple questions:

* Name

*DOB

*Professional job out side the home

*Ethnicity

*Marital status

*List of Hats

*Which Hat best describes you

NB:

- *All questions are optional but a least a first name would be helpful

-Please do not spend more than 10 minutes doing this...we are all busy!

-Please tick box if you are happy to be contacted...by me!
